What to do

- Each player takes turns of rolling both dice, and the number they roll is how many spaces they move on the board.
- If you land on a space with that has words in it you must do what it says.
- The person who gets to space number 50 first wins the game.
- After you've played the game try colouring in the game board, make sure you use light colours on the spaces so you can still read the words.
